

Carboro Southern.

Friday, June 25, 1875

RATES OF ADVERTISING:

Advertisements will be inserted in the Carboro Southern at the following rates. Ten lines of space, or one inch longwise will constitute a square.
One square one insertion.	$1.00
Each subsequent insertion.	50c
One square one insertion.	$1.00
Each subsequent insertion.	50c
One square one insertion.	$1.00
Each subsequent insertion.	50c

LOCAL MATTERS.

THE CANVAS.—The democratic appointments will be found elsewhere. Read them, tell your neighbors when speaking will be in your neighborhood, go, you speak and see that everybody else goes. The campaign is now open. Prepare for the contest!

SCHOOLS.

The advertisements of the celebrated Bingham Military Academy and the Greensboro Female College appear in to-day's issue. They need no endorsement on our hands. Read the "ads."

TRIAL OF ELIAS POWELL, COL.

The trial of Elias Powell, col., at Halifax last week for the murder of Mr. D. Cohen, resulted in his conviction. The State was represented by the Solicitor and Messrs. Phillips of this place, and Bunn of Rocky Mount.

SOUTHERN ILLUSTRATED AGE.

We call attention to the prospectus in another column of the Southern Illustrated Age to appear on Saturday, 26th day of June, 1875, R. T. Fulgum, editor. This enterprise is as worthy as it is novel, and we wish its projector much success.

READ THIS.

"The girls of Warsaw, Ky., have unanimously resolved to purchase no dry goods costing more than twenty-five cents per yard for the space of one year. Here is a woman's reform movement which, if carried into effect throughout the entire South, would do more to cure the ills or short crops and high rates than any plan we have yet seen suggested."

ACTUATOR.

J. B. Hyatt having legally qualified as Auctioneer for the county of Edgecombe, tenders his services to the public. He will exercise the auctioneering business in any part of the county when called upon. He is not incumbered with any other business, so he will give his entire attention to auctioneering. He can be seen on business in Tarboro at all times, or Henry A. Shurley, his book keeper, will make contracts for him which will be acknowledged.

HILLIARD & MOORE.

—Ex-Judge Hilliard and Mr. Marcellus Moore, of Pitt, have opened a Commission House in Norfolk. These gentlemen are well known in this section and will doubtless do well in their new place of business. Judge Hilliard will continue the practice of law in Greenville and Mr. Moore will have general supervision of the business in Norfolk.

SUPREME COURT.

The following decision from Edgecombe has been filed: G. L. Winburn vs. Battle Bryan from Edgecombe. Error Judgment according to verdict of Jury.

Much interest is manifested in the decision of this court upon the case of Non-fading Flannel Suits.

—We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to attend the concert of the Wilson Collegiate Seminary for young ladies, which took place on Thursday evening, June 24th.

Choice brands of Cigars at wholesale and retail.

His hair is white, his limbs are weak, his age is sixty-eight, and when he calls for lemonade, He wants his whiskey straight.

Buy your heavy 4-4 Brown Sheeting your Cotton Yarns and your Plow Lines.

Black-eyed ladies are most apt to be passionate and jealous. Blue-eyed—soulful, truthful, affectionate and confiding. Grey-eyed—philosophical, literary, reserved and cold-hearted. Hazel-eyed—quick-tempered and fickle. Green-eyed—jealous. —Yonkers Gazette.

When you want your business to increase and thrive, advertise in the SOUTHERNER.

"The little mosquito, Heard humming alone, His thirsty companions, Will be here anon."

The item of cotton rope for plow lines seems a small matter.

In the aggregate it is worth keeping at home. Order from Battle & Son's Rocky Mount Mills, Rocky Mount, N. C.

Wanted, at this office, an able bodied, hard-featured, hard-tempered, not-to-be-pu-ted and not-to-be-backed-down, freckled-faced young man, to collect for this paper, from his own horse, saddle-bags, whiskey, pistols, bow-knife, and cowhide. To a poor person constant and laborious employment given.

RISING.

The walls of Howard's new brick stores.

Will appear next week.

The reply to "Cade's" will appear in our next.

DEAD.

The mother of Col. Wm. H. Knight died last Tuesday morning we learn.

MOVED.

Pamlico Insurance Head quarters have been moved to the old Bank Building on Trade Street.

BEST COTTON.

We learn Mr. Gray Cobb, of Lewis' township, has the best cotton heard from. It will average knee high.

BAD BRIDGE.

The bridge about a hundred yards this side of W. M. Edmonson's is in a very bad condition. Let the overseer attend to it.

MILITARY COMPANY.

Almost every town in the state up to the times has a military organization. What say the young gentlemen of Tarboro?

SHOOTING AFFRAY.

—Edward Colton and Charles Boyd, both colored, engaged in a shooting affray at Sparta on Saturday evening about a negro girl. Boyd was dangerously wounded in the right breast. Colton has escaped arrest as yet.

ICE CREAM SALOON.

Messrs. Chas. Dozier and Henry Spragins have opened a first-class ice cream saloon at the old Gregory Hotel. It is well arranged and ladies need feel no indecency in visiting it for refreshments.

THE CANVAS.

The democratic appointments will be found elsewhere. Read them, tell your neighbors when speaking will be in your neighborhood, go, you speak and see that everybody else goes. The campaign is now open. Prepare for the contest!

SCHOOLS.

The advertisements of the celebrated Bingham Military Academy and the Greensboro Female College appear in to-day's issue. They need no endorsement on our hands. Read the "ads."

TRIAL OF ELIAS POWELL, COL.

The trial of Elias Powell, col., at Halifax last week for the murder of Mr. D. Cohen, resulted in his conviction. The State was represented by the Solicitor and Messrs. Phillips of this place, and Bunn of Rocky Mount.

SOUTHERN ILLUSTRATED AGE.

We call attention to the prospectus in another column of the Southern Illustrated Age to appear on Saturday, 26th day of June, 1875, R. T. Fulgum, editor. This enterprise is as worthy as it is novel, and we wish its projector much success.

READ THIS.

"The girls of Warsaw, Ky., have unanimously resolved to purchase no dry goods costing more than twenty-five cents per yard for the space of one year. Here is a woman's reform movement which, if carried into effect throughout the entire South, would do more to cure the ills or short crops and high rates than any plan we have yet seen suggested."

ACTUATOR.

J. B. Hyatt having legally qualified as Auctioneer for the county of Edgecombe, tenders his services to the public. He will exercise the auctioneering business in any part of the county when called upon. He is not incumbered with any other business, so he will give his entire attention to auctioneering. He can be seen on business in Tarboro at all times, or Henry A. Shurley, his book keeper, will make contracts for him which will be acknowledged.

HILLIARD & MOORE.

—Ex-Judge Hilliard and Mr. Marcellus Moore, of Pitt, have opened a Commission House in Norfolk. These gentlemen are well known in this section and will doubtless do well in their new place of business. Judge Hilliard will continue the practice of law in Greenville and Mr. Moore will have general supervision of the business in Norfolk.

SUPREME COURT.

The following decision from Edgecombe has been filed: G. L. Winburn vs. Battle Bryan from Edgecombe. Error Judgment according to verdict of Jury.

Much interest is manifested in the decision of this court upon the case of Non-fading Flannel Suits.

—We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to attend the concert of the Wilson Collegiate Seminary for young ladies, which took place on Thursday evening, June 24th.

Choice brands of Cigars at wholesale and retail.

His hair is white, his limbs are weak, his age is sixty-eight, and when he calls for lemonade, He wants his whiskey straight.

Buy your heavy 4-4 Brown Sheeting your Cotton Yarns and your Plow Lines.

Black-eyed ladies are most apt to be passionate and jealous. Blue-eyed—soulful, truthful, affectionate and confiding. Grey-eyed—philosophical, literary, reserved and cold-hearted. Hazel-eyed—quick-tempered and fickle. Green-eyed—jealous. —Yonkers Gazette.

When you want your business to increase and thrive, advertise in the SOUTHERNER.

"The little mosquito, Heard humming alone, His thirsty companions, Will be here anon."

The item of cotton rope for plow lines seems a small matter.

In the aggregate it is worth keeping at home. Order from Battle & Son's Rocky Mount Mills, Rocky Mount, N. C.

Wanted, at this office, an able bodied, hard-featured, hard-tempered, not-to-be-pu-ted and not-to-be-backed-down, freckled-faced young man, to collect for this paper, from his own horse, saddle-bags, whiskey, pistols, bow-knife, and cowhide. To a poor person constant and laborious employment given.

RISING.

The walls of Howard's new brick stores.

Will appear next week.

The reply to "Cade's" will appear in our next.

DEAD.

The mother of Col. Wm. H. Knight died last Tuesday morning we learn.

MOVED.

Pamlico Insurance Head quarters have been moved to the old Bank Building on Trade Street.

BEST COTTON.

We learn Mr. Gray Cobb, of Lewis' township, has the best cotton heard from. It will average knee high.

BAD BRIDGE.

The bridge about a hundred yards this side of W. M. Edmonson's is in a very bad condition. Let the overseer attend to it.

THE WELDON RACES!

Edgecombe Wins over Martin and Halifax.

Messrs. Edge.—More delightful weather for the enjoyment of racing could not have been desired than we had for the racing at Weldon on the 17th inst. The attendance was large and a large proportion were ladies whose gay and brilliant toilet lent additional charms to the exciting scene. The great sporting event was fortunate—in all respects a success. For days before nothing was talked of in Tarboro but the Weldon races. The usual salutation was: "what horse are you backing? what's the odds, &c." The track was safe, but not fast, and had evidently been neglected by the proper authorities.

The dash of half a mile between Hope, of Edgecombe, and Piney Woods, of Halifax, was the first event upon the programme. Hope was decidedly the favorite by long odds, selling in the pool at 5 to 1. There was some delay in starting, but finally the flag fell to a good send off. Hope being the quickest, soon took the lead, and gradually increased until reaching the home stretch when Piney Woods tired. Nathan seeing the race was won, took Hope in hand and came home in a canter, winner by a dozen lengths.

The next upon the programme was the trotting match for $1,000, between Bob Lee, of Edgecombe, and Ajax, of Martin, mile heats, best 3 in 5. In consequence of Ajax's repeated trials and his being tired by the best horseman in North Carolina, it was generally conceded that he would win. He was the favorite, selling in the pool at $100, while Bob Lee brought $25. Ajax had numerous and plucky friends who invested their bottom dollar on his winning at any odds. But it was not his day. Bob won without an effort in three straight heats. Ajax, from some cause could not extend himself, owing probably to the hardness of the track.

Ajax's friends are not satisfied with the race, and report says they are coming again; they are plucky men and do not doubt what they say, but would suggest that they consult a young friend not a thousand miles from Tarboro upon a pet theory of his in regard to the matter. He says he may learn to bet as he has—without a risk. His true that Martin was badly beaten this time, but that's no reason why she should remain so.

Hope to hear of another match soon, and the good fortune to witness it. I remain, yours, &c., A. LOOKER-ON.

"THE BOY OR COUSIN MAX."

—Where will be found a communication to the State Agricultural Journal from our young friend, Mr. Silas E. Warren, son of Elder Wm. Warren of the Primitive Baptist church, that reflects credit upon one of his years. We will observe what they are subject. Farmers' sons as they grow up get a silly notion into their heads to leave the field to jump the counter of some village store. They seem to think it is a more honorable occupation when it is exactly the reverse. There is no greater field in any branch of industry for brain and education than in agriculture. All professions now-a-days are crowded while educated farmers are rare. There is no necessity for this condition of things and we hope our young friends throughout Edgecombe will stay on the farm and stick to the plow. Not long hence they will experience the wisdom in such a course. The prosperity of the nation depends upon enlightened agriculture and it is undoubtedly the source of all wealth. The business is just as honorable as that of the lawyer, the doctor, the merchant, or anybody else and equally as lucrative. At the North, people who have the greatest respect for the "Southern Planter," sometimes turn up their noses at the reputation of the average Southern professional man. Stick to the farm. We will be glad to have Mr. Warren contribute his articles to the Southerner.

WELDON FAIR GROUNDS:

Fine day for Races!

THREE HUNDRED PEOPLE PRESENT!

EDGECOMBE AHEAD!

Money Circulating Freely.

On Thursday, the 17th instant, the races came off at the Fair Grounds near here. A special train, under Captain E. D. Browning, was run for the occasion. For many weeks past there has been an unusual dearth of news in this section. No fights, no murders, no marrying, etc., but business seems to be going on as usual. The "Nation's" pet, being a belle of nature, and perhaps stimulated by cheap whiskey, broke down a door and was taken to the capacity of another negro's head, but he is now no doubt contemplating visiting our State hotel.

A gay lotario from our neighboring county came to grief not long since by mistaking a horse in the hands of an angry parent; a man who had a few weeks before been directed, persuaded a young lady of good family to elope with him and within a short distance of the J. P. who was to make the train, one flesh, the girl's father overtook him and with the butt end of his horsewhip convinced him of the impropriety of his proceedings.

Our crops, considering the cool weather, are pretty good so far as my observation extends.

The Conservatives held a Township Convention at this place and at Bath on Saturday last. Bath people were not invited, and I think that Panego will. We could scarcely do better, and if the Republicans can get out a pretty strong man, we shall have exciting times.

The young folks are having gay times with their tableaux, vivants, charades, &c. The health of the community is good, but I fear so much rainy weather will be prejudicial. More anon.

$4000.00.—O. C. Farrar & Co., have actually had $4000.00 worth of Boots and Shoes. They keep the finest and latest styles of Gent's hand and machine Philadelphia Made Shoes for Summer wear, guaranteed not to hurt your feet if you get a pair large enough. Consisting of the following styles:

The Bismark Gaiter, Prince Albert Shoe

and Kaiser Tie.

Call and examine for yourself.

June 4th, 1875.

THE BEST in the Commonwealth for the money, McGehee's Bankers Segars and Glee County Club Segars. Ask your Druggist, Hotel Keeper and Grocer for the Bankers and Glee Club Segars. Manufactured in Norfolk, Va. by Mr. J. W. A. McHEGAN.

MEDICINE'S ALE.—Mr. J. L. Coker, wishes to inform the public and his friends generally that he has just received a fresh supply of Medicine's Celebrated Ale, the best that is made, on or draught.

Call and try a glass.

June 4-21.

IMPORTANT TO THE LADIES.—E. B.

Blamire & Co., 182 Main St., Norfolk, Va., have just received a large assortment of Ladies' Linen Suits, prices from four to fifteen dollars, some very handsomely trimmed. Orders by mail with instructions in regard to price and size will receive prompt attention. Also great bargains in Ladies' Gownings at 37 1/2, 45, 50, 60 and 75 cents per yard. Samples mailed on application. Dresses made to order at short notice.

Address E. B. Blamire & Co., Norfolk.

Agents for E. Butterick & Co's Patterns. Send for summer catalogue.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

NEW YORK, June 23.—Cotton firm and steady; 2 of 201 bales, uplands at 15 1/2 cents 15 1/2.

Baltimore Markets.

BALTIMORE, June 23.—Cotton quiet and nominal; middlings 15.

R. B. ALSOP,

GROCER,

MAIN STREET,

TARBORO, N. C.

Choice and varied stock kept constantly on hand.

my 25-11

TEXAS FROG.

—We have been shown by Capt. Hossey Battle, of Rocky Mount, a Texas Horned Frog sent him by some friend in the "Lone Star" State. He is a curious creature.

Silver Plated Ice Pitchers, Goblets, &c.

at BELL'S, together with a full assortment of desirable Table Ware and Cutlery. Also Watches, Jewelry, Clocks, Studs, Cuff and Collar Buttons, Rings, Chains, Charms, Bracelets, Gold and Silver Thimbles, &c. Cheap.

Democratic Speaking.

There will be Democratic Speaking on the Convention question at the following times and places:

Kill Quick, Saturday June 26th, H. C.

Bourne and J. M. Perry.

Leggett's Store, Wednesday, June 30th,

Fred Phillips and Hon. George Howard.

Noble's Saloon, July 3rd, H. C. Bourne and J. L. Bridges, Jr.

Sparta, Wednesday, July 7th, Hon. George

Howard and Fred Phillips.

Railroad Hotel, Thursday, July 8th, Hon.

L. Bridges, Jr. and H. C. Bourne.

Laurens, Saturday, July 10th, H. C. Bourne and John L. Bridges, Jr.

Whitaker's, Wednesday, July 14th, Fred

 Phillips and J. M. Perry. || Barnes' Store, Saturday, July 17th, Fred |  |
Phillips and H. C. Bourne.
Piney Grove, Saturday, July 17th, Hon.
George Howard and J. L. Bridges, Jr.
Battleboro, Thursday, July 22nd, Fred Phillips and J. M. Perry.
Rocky Mount, Saturday, July 24th, Hon.
George Howard and J. L. Bridges, Jr.
Lewis' Store, Saturday, July 31st, Hon.
Geo. Howard and Fred Phillips.
Tarboro, Saturday, August 3rd, Hon. Geo.
Howard and audience.
Jos. Blount Chesire, Jr., and others will also speak at the several precincts.

THE OLD TRUMP.

This is the name of a late and popular novel published by E. J. Hale & Son, of New York. The Louisville Courier-Journal in its notice says:

"This is a novel that bids fair from the freshness and audacity of its plot, from the crudeness and vigour of its style, and from its variety and charm of incident, to be the most popular novel of the year. Opening it in the middle with no other expectation than that to arrive at an understanding of its merits in a few minutes, we were instantly charmed into an interest that compelled us not only to read to the end, but upon reaching that, to begin at the beginning and read the whole, that we might not lose the least grace of the beautiful tale that had beguiled us of unheeded hours in its perusal. In one sense it is a sensational novel, but it is of the hearty, healthy kind of sensation of the highest order, such as is seen in the best of Charles Reade's stories. The heroes, of which there are several, are all handsome, athletic, lucky and rich, and meet with astonishing and difficult adventures, which they have the rare ability to bring to most successful terminations. The Old Trump is, of course, the most prominent of these heroes and well deserves his title. His adventures, events and triumphs are all so convincing, old, and so in his universal success. Sober second thought will hardly permit us to say that the innumerable incidents in the career of this youthful paladin and his brothers in arms are all probable or likely to fall to the lot of average bank clerk and young gentlemen, either in this or any other century, but the charming manner in which the tale is told gives it little room for sober second thought, and in fact we have doubts whether the representative fiction of the day can properly be judged by such thought. Its aim is to amuse and delight, and while it can do this without dissipation and immorality, innocently, heartily and healthily—it is deserving of the highest praise. This novel before us, which is a masterpiece of style and content, is the apotheosis of chivalric bravery and courtesy, and is written in elegant English with a purity of style that is in itself refreshing. The scene of the story is laid in England, and one of the principal characters is a young American who might certainly stand as the type of the brave and gallant Southerner, the beau ideal of the knight of the nineteenth century, master of every accomplishment, brave and true, with his own language correctly—handsome, virtuous, rich—without reproach, and impossible. The author has withheld his name, but it is not difficult to be guessed. It is destined to become widely known and admired, for there is an exuberance of promise manifest in every page of this brilliant novel that is certain to bear fruit in other and even better books. That the author is a Southerner is none certain. If this is a first attempt, a new star of the first magnitude has appeared in the galaxy of fiction. We are sure that an experienced hand has chosen to send forth a venture, money to the world, fresh laurels will be added to his wreath, whoever may wear it."

We are under obligations to Mr.

T. E. Lewis, Bookseller, for a copy.

Chamberlain & Rawls are offering great inducements to purchasers of goods in their line. A splendid assortment of Clocks just received. A full line of 18K Rings, Vest and Opera Chains, cheaper than they were ever offered before in Tarboro. Every thing else in their line "dirt cheap." Fine prices and specialties.

COMMERCIAL.

Tarboro' Market.

COLLECTED WEEKLY BY

R. B. ALSOP, Grocer,

MAIN STREET,

TARBORO, N. C.

Home productions are quoted at the buying price, and all others at the selling price from stores.

BACON—C. C. HAMS, in casks, per lb. 13c@20

Shoulders 12c@13

Sides, back bone and ribs 15c@16

BULK MEATS.—Shoulders, per lb. 11c@12

Sides, clear 13c@14

Beef—Fresh, per lb. 10c@11

Sliced Family per lb. 12c@13

BACON—per yard, 14c@17

Beef—per lb. 10c@11

CORN, per bushel, 25c@26

CORN, per bushel, 25c@26

CORN, per bushel, 25c@26

CORN, per bushel, 25c@26

CORN, per bushel, 25c@26

CORN, per bushel, 25c@26

CORN, per bushel, 25c@26

CORN, per bushel, 25c@26

CORN, per bushel, 25c@26

CORN, per bushel, 25c@26

CORN, per bushel, 25c@26

CORN, per bushel, 25c@26

CORN, per bushel, 25c